Competition Sunday

Dutch wrestlers to visit Bath

BATH — Hyde School's football team will be the site of a Sunday afternoon meet between the Netherlands Senior National Wrestling team and the Maine Olympic wrestling team.

The meet, which will climax a tour of the Northeast by the Dutch team, begins at 10 a.m. with a number of wrestling matches scheduled for participants. Dennis Bishop, coach of the Maine team, said former Maine lightweight champion Dave Thon, Hyde's Don Goodrich and Hyde School assistant coach John Chasterton, formerly of Bowdoin, will be among those wrestling on the Sunday card. Brian Mulligan, who is wrestling Bowdoin in the opening phase of the program, injured a knee and is out of the competition, as is Kevin Gilmore who decided not to wrestle for personal reasons. Bob Higgins and Gilmore were wrestling assistants while at Maine High.

The Dutch team, which has wrestled from age 19 through 35 years of age, has previous meets scheduled at McGill University, St. Lawrence University, Potomac, University of Massachusetts and Plymouth State College in New Hampshire. The visitors will take on the York County Athletic Club in Sanford Friday evening at 7 before coming to Bath for the following evening.

Hyde School founder Joe Gould and Maine Olympic team leader Gordon Anderson of the University of Maine-Franceville are scheduled to greet the Dutch members when they arrive in Bath Saturday. On top for the team, in addition to the meet Sunday at Potomac, is a tour of the Bath Iron Works. Admission for the Sunday action is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Gilbert gets shot, but ...

By PETER MAY
UPI Sports Writer

BOSTON (UPI) — Gilles Gilbert has drawn the starting assignment to put for the Boston Bruins when they resume their Stanley Cup quarterfinal series Saturday at Pittsburgh against the Penguins.

It could be his last appearance in a Bruins uniform.

Gilbert yesterday said he would not return to the team next year under the present circumstances. Translated, that means if coach Don Cherry to back and guide Cherry's decision to play another year.

"No way," Gilbert said, when asked if he would return if the situation remained the same. "I wouldn't say anything but I don't want to return. I couldn't take it anymore."

Cherry's team is anything but sure, but Gilbert is pondering retirement. But Gilbert, who became a free agent at the end of this season, figures he's still a quality player that should play more. He played 44 games last season.

Gilbert has played in Boston for six years. He was the team's No. 3 goalie in 1976-77.

He had three years before, when he was returned from the World Hockey Association.

"The first three years here, (1976-77) were the greatest of my life. But the last three years, I'm trying to figure out how the whole thing got started. I'm just two capable of being the best. I get confidence from the players, but I need confidence from someone else," he said, nodding his head toward Cherry.

Cherry said he and Gilbert are one of the best in the game when he wants to be. But the Boston mentor has little confidence in Gilbert and thus is not Cherry in player situations.

Hyde sweeps track pair

BATH — Hyde School's track team had no problems downing Lewiston Academy in both boys and girls competition yesterday, both clubs boasting their records to 2-0 in the process.

Danuel McGee won three events as Hyde's boys' team. McGee won the 100-yard dash, the 200-yard dash and the 400-yard dash. Hyde's girls' team won the 100-yard dash, the 200-yard dash and the 400-yard dash.

Fidrych clouted but arm's not bad

by JOE RAY

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Mark Fidrych wasn't overjoyed with his blasted pitching statistics in the Detroit Tigers exhibition game Wednesday with the Cincinnati Reds, but he was smiling broadly about his arm.

"I feel all right, other than getting rocked around a little," said the unimpaired right-hander, who was pounded for five runs and seven hits in 3 1/3 innings of the Reds' 6-0 win. "I wasn't impressed about the hitting, but I was impressed because of the way I hit."

"I had no pain when I threw," said the 1976 American League Rookie of the Year, who is working his way back from shoulder surgery that sidelined him most of the past two seasons.

"Every time I throw, I don't worry. I'm pleased about the way my arm felt. I felt good. There was no pain. I knew it was all right. I threw more consistent strikes and had more rhythm — more of the things you're looking for. Maybe next time I'll be better."

Fidrych's performance, which included his usual antics of dancing to and from the mound between ball changes and running to first base a walk, also put a smile on the face of Tigers Manager Lee MacPhail.

"I was pleased with his velocity tonight," said MacPhail, beaming. "He threw some real good strikes. It's too bad we weren't able to work him out in spring training when Fidrych had back surgery."

"I'm not pleased," said MacPhail, adding, "I like you. I'm anxious to see how his arm feels tomorrow and the day after."

"The Reds" started impressively Wednesday, striking out loaded batter Dave Concepcion and retiring Dave Collins and Joe Morgan on grounders. But the Reds put together doubles by Chang Summers, Dan Dierker and Gene Garmon to tie the game in the second.

Fidrych cut the Reds down with just 12 pitches in the third, but was hit hard in the fourth. Summers drove a 1-1 pitch 380 feet over an outfield wall. Dierker added and one out later Garmon later tagged a 1-2 pitch 380 feet over an outfield wall. Fidrych then hit the right field corner for a triple.

When pinch hitter Archie Altman followed with a ground single to left, Fidrych followed with a ground single to left, Fidrych followed with a ground single to left, Fidrych followed with a ground single to left.

Fidrych threw a total of 66 pitches. He admitted he probably tried in the fourth inning, and said his motion in throwing something was a little off.

He also admitted he tried to prove something on his Wednesday start.

"Yeah, I tried to prove something tonight," Fidrych said. "I wanted to say I was in the major leagues."

Fishing awards to be presented at Blakes, if ...

WILKESBARRE — Sports Afield, one of the nation's largest fishing magazines, has announced Blakes of Maine as the winner of the 1978 Maine State Fishing Award.

The MSFA is designed to honor meritorious catches in the state each year. A special certificate is awarded to each angler catching a qualifying fish and the awarding of a personal certificate and a silver Sports Afield Sports Fish Pin to the "Best in State" of each species.

Fishermen can qualify for the entry cards which list minimum weights by entering their catches within 60 days after catching. Fish must be caught on sporting tackle in the state's waters, either salt or fresh.

Beneficiaries of the top awards will be listed each year in Sports Afield and kept in a national register for record purposes.

The minimum weights for salt water fish are: striped bass (20 lbs.), bluefish (10 lbs.), blue crab (10 lbs.), water hound (10 lbs.), haddock (12 lbs.), mackerel (10 lbs.), Atlantic salmon (15 lbs.), and 10 lbs. Trout (10 lbs.) and 10 lbs. and blue fish (250 lbs.).

For fresh water catches, large mouth bass (10 lbs.), small mouth bass (5 lbs.), channel catfish (10 lbs.), white perch (10 lbs.), Atlantic salmon (15 lbs.), haddock (12 lbs.), brook trout (10 lbs.), brown trout (10 lbs.), lake trout (15 lbs.) and rainbow trout (10 lbs.).

Brunswick netmen drub Rockland

ROCKLAND — Brunswick High School defeated Rockland 5-0 in Brunswick Valley Conference tennis action Tuesday. The Dragons won every set in the process — none of them close.

The winners: Fred Davis (B) over Peter Malinowski 6-0, 6-1; Richard Anderson (B) over Jeff Holloway 6-0, 6-1; Bob Mathews (B) over Dana Margolis 6-0, 6-0; Mark Mathews and Nils Erickson (B) over Bob Bird and Shaver Cash 6-0, 6-0; Tim Bush and Greg Love (B) over Margie and Holloway 8-2.

Armas on list

OAKLAND (UPI) — Tony Armas, who injured his right knee April 15, has been placed on the 21-day disabled list by the Oakland Athletics.

To take his place on the roster, the A's recalled Derek Bryant from Ogden of the Pacific Coast League.

Armas is expected to be out of action from three to six weeks. He injured the same knee a year ago and missed nearly two months of play.
